Miss Hazel Summerhays, Miss Agnes Lee.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Miss Helen Verena Gates to Charles W. Helm. The wedding took place at Philomath January 14th. The bride is the daughter of H. V. Gates, who was heavily interested in the light and water and telephone companies here a few years ago. She is a sister of O. B. Gates, who was in charge here, and during her frequent visits in this city she made a host of friends. The groom is a well known Portland business man, and the couple will reside at 253 East Seventeenth street, in the "Rose City."

In honor of her sister, Mrs. Charles Chitwood, Miss Beesie Applegate is entertaining a number of women at the home of Mrs. John McCall this afternoon. A friendly visit and needlework are being enjoyed, and refreshments will be served. Miss Applegate's guests are Mrs. Charles Chitwood, Mrs. John McCall, Mrs. M. Sargent, Mrs. William A. Delsell, Mrs. Willis E. Fought, Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, Mrs. Will S. Worden, Mrs. George Chastain, Mrs. Hamilton Chitwood, Mrs. E. I. Applegate, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. E. B. Henry, Mrs. Howard Van Valkenburg, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. Fred H. Mills, Mrs. Selden Ogilvie, Mrs. Jackson P. Kimball, Mrs. Wesley O. Smith, Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, Miss Maud Baldwin.

The "tango" and "hesitation waltz"—two of the much discussed new dances—made their bow to Klamath Falls at the dancing party given by the Klamath Club at the White Pelican last night. The new waltz made a tremendous hit, and as it is as easy as it is graceful, it was in general use before the evening's program was concluded. The tango could hardly be said to have jumped into general use so quickly. One number of the program was given over to this, but it was more of an exhibition than a dance, the majority of the guests gathering to watch the gyrations of those indulging in the semi-acrobatic stunt. There were over sixty couples in attendance at the dance, which, as usual with the Klamath Club's affairs, was a great success. Every dance number was enjoyed to the utmost, and the conclusion of every rendition by Tindall's orchestra was greeted by loud encores and cries for "more." As a result, the rendering of encores delayed the conclusion of the dance about an hour.

The 1912 Needlework Club met on Friday afternoon with Mrs. R. A. Emmitt, at her residence on Oak street, and spent the evening hours in playing the needle and social chatter. The club members present were Mrs. Chester Avery, Mrs. G. K. Van Riper, Mrs. Fred Peterson, Mrs. Nate Otterbein, Mrs. W. P. Johnson, Mrs. Fred Melhase, Mrs. Wm. Whitlock, Mrs. J. M.

Johnson, Mrs. K. D. North and Miss Constance Schallack. At 4 o'clock Mrs. Emmitt regaled her guests with refreshments, after which the meeting adjourned.

At her residence on Eighth street, Mrs. Fred Peterson is this afternoon entertaining the lady pioneers of Klamath county. The afternoon will be spent in a social meet, and ere the evening shades fall the guests will surround the banquet board to partake of a regular old-time dinner.

Mrs. F. J. Bryant was the recipient of a "lunch shower" this afternoon, given by her many friends, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Howie on Seventh street. Many beautiful and useful articles were given the bride of three weeks, and an afternoon of social gossip, a delicious luncheon and excellent music highly enjoyed by the guests.

The domestic science class of the high school prepared an elegant luncheon Friday noon, at which William Hayward, physical instructor at the U. of O., the high school faculty and the parents of members of the high school athletic squad were the guests. The luncheon was prepared and served by the girls of the class, and consisted of fruit salads, pickled peaches, assorted sandwiches, baked beans, tea biscuits, cookies, jellies and coffee.

The Blue Bell Club, composed of young women connected with the local exchange of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, has arranged to give an informal dancing party on the night of February 16th, at Moose hall. Invitations are soon to be issued.

Friends of Mrs. Thomas Hampton spent a highly delightful afternoon at her residence Monday, when she entertained three tables of bridge. Attending were Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. L. M. Bradford, Mrs. J. C. Brockebrough, Mrs. Mary A. Jackson, Mrs. Elbert B. Hall, Mrs. Robert A. Johnson, Mrs. Charles Meldrum, Mrs. Will W. Baldwin, Mrs. F. Zim Baldwin, Mrs. H. G. Benson, Mrs. Orb Campbell, Mrs. Fred Schallack and Mrs. Earl Whitlock. The prize was won by Mrs. Charles Martin. A dainty luncheon was served the guests by the hostess.

The annual ball of Klamath Falls Lodge No. 1247, B. P. O. Elks, will be given on the night of February 12, according to announcement by the entertainment committee of the antlered herd. The dance will be held at the White Pelican hotel. The Elks and their "deers" have enjoyed these affairs to the utmost.

In order to raise funds for furnishing the women's comfort station to be opened in the Chamber of Commerce building, the Women's Civic League has arranged to give a supper at the former location of the Bradley Harness company Saturday night. This will be served cafeteria style, and will be from 5 until 8 o'clock. The comfort station is being arranged for the benefit of women and children from out of town, who are here for a few hours during the day, and have no other place to make their headquarters.

Mrs. Edward J. Murray is hostess to the Royal Auction Bridge Club today. The members are Mrs. George Noland, Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, Mrs. Wesley O. Smith, Mrs. Clarence Underwood and Miss Maud Baldwin.

Mrs. Charles Meldrum was hostess to the Friday Pelican Club at the White Pelican hotel Friday afternoon. Mrs. Hampton was awarded the prize for card honors. Members of the club are Mrs. J. C. Brockebrough, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. F. B. English, Mrs. Herbert Gale, Mrs. Mary A. Jackson, Mrs. Elbert B. Hall, Mrs. Charles Meldrum, Mrs. Fred Mills, Mrs. Earl Whitlock and Mrs. Fred Schallack.

The Tuesday Bridge Club was entertained Tuesday of this week by Mrs. O. W. Robertson, and the usual delightful informal afternoon of bridge obtained. Attending were Mrs. Charles Robertson, Mrs. Bert E. Withrow, Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, Mrs. Earl Whitlock, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. Charles Meldrum and Mrs. Harry Benson.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Klamath County.

Emma R. Grigsby, Plaintiff, vs.

Frank Irish, Defendant.

To Frank Irish, the above named defendant:

In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before Saturday, the 7th day of March, 1914, that being the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons, and if you fail so to appear and answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to wit: For a judgment against the said defendant, Frank Irish, for the sum of $500, together with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from January 8, 1912, and for the further sum of $57.08 paid out for taxes on said premises, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from December 13, 1913, and for the further sum of $100 at attorney's fees for instituting this suit, and for the costs and disbursements herein; that the said sum of $57.08, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from December 13, 1913, be declared to be an additional lien on said premises in favor of plaintiff and against defendant; that the usual decree be made for the sale of the lands and premises described in plaintiff's mortgage; that is to say:

West half of northwest quarter of section thirty-five, and the east half of the southeast quarter of section nineteen, and the east half of the northeast quarter of section thirty, all in township thirty-eight south, range ten east of Willamette meridian, in Oregon.

That the said sale be made by the sheriff of Klamath county, Oregon, in manner provided by law. That the proceeds of said sale be applied in the payment of said judgment, interest, costs and attorney's fees and all accruing costs. That plaintiff have execution against the defendant for any balance that may remain due the plaintiff after applying all the proceeds of said sale as above provided. That the defendant and all persons claiming under him subsequent to the execution of plaintiff's said mortgage upon said lands and premises, either as purchasers, incumbrancers or otherwise may be barred and foreclosed of all right, claim or equity of redemption in and to said lands and premises and every part thereof. That plaintiff have such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is served by publication thereof in the Evening Herald, a daily newspaper of general circulation published in Klamath county, Oregon, by order of Honorable Henry J. Benson, Judge of the above entitled court, made, dated and filed in said suit at Klamath Falls, Oregon, on the 24th day of January, 1914, which said order requires that summons in said suit be published once a week for a period of six consecutive weeks, from the 24th day of January, 1914, the date of the first publication of summons prescribed in said order.

The Bow of the "Sugar Bowl"

Monday the "Sugar Bowl" will extend its initial welcome to the people of Klamath Falls and surrounding country.

With the opening of the doors of the new and elegantly appointed establishment, we extend a hearty invitation to the people of the community to consider the "SUGAR BOWL" their store. It has been constructed and finished with this aim in view. For your convenience we have installed a perfectly equipped rest room, where you may sit and read the latest magazines while recovering from your arduous shopping tour; use the phone for a chat with your friends; fix your hair while waiting for "him" to come. Everything possible for your convenience has been arranged for.

We take great pleasure also in stating that our candy cases are stocked with the finest line of confections ever shown in this city. The fountain is equipped with every modern apparatus for concocting appetizing mixtures to tickle the palates of the fastidious, and will be provided over by experienced artists in this line.

We expect you to be fair enough to give us a call, then it is up to us to merit a continuance of your patronage.
